

Dr. Anil Samaranayake M.B.B.S. M.A. M.Sc. M.D
Director
Medical Research Institute
Ministry of Health
Sri Lanka

Anil Samaranayake obtained his graduation in Surgery and Medicine from the Faculty of Medicine, University of Colombo, Sri Lanka in 1994. He joined the Postgraduate Institute of Medicine of the University of Colombo and obtained Master of Science in Community Medicine. He succeeded in obtaining Master of Arts in Mass Communication from University of Sri Jayawardenepura, Sri Lanka. After working many years in the field of Public Health he received Doctor of Medicine [MD] in Community Medicine from the University of Colombo, and became a Consultant Community Physician in the year 2008. He studied advance research methodology in Uppsala University, Sweden, and worked as a Post Doctoral Research Fellow in University of Melbourne, Australia.

His research interests include public health interventions and clinical microbiology with special emphasis on sexually transmitted infection including HIV and AIDS. His scientific articles have been appeared in many international journals including Journal of HIV Medicine, Journal of Sexually Transmitted Infections, Journal of Sexually Transmitted Diseases and Journal of Sexual Health. He has published six books and has written numerous newspaper articles covering diversified areas in Medicine and Mass Communication and he has been the Guest Editor of many national publications in Sri Lanka. On completion of 15 years of service as a clinician, in the year 2010, he became the youngest Director of the Medical Research Institute of Sri Lanka, one of the oldest research institutes in Asia, established in year 1900.